Episode 8

Welcome Everyone,

As a volunteer team effort, today we are proud to release the first wave of fact checks which we are presenting here to anyone so all can look through these fact checks with us and helps us improve. This initial first draft is to be given to the public to help us peer review the legendary documentary which has woken up so many around the world “Europa The Last Battle”.

We are “Rise Europa” or otherwise previously known as “Europa The Last Battle Activism” on Telegram having created the channel in 2021 initially to give people the ability to make their own Europa The Last Battle Blu Ray copies, fliers, and trailers to share as we built EuropaTheLastBattle.net. We never created Europa The Last Battle, however we have pushed it for many years on EuropaTheLastBattle.net making trailers and promotional videos for this film which has brought so many to understanding the truth of the world around us. This channel was created out of passion in the beginning because many people ONLY had great things to say about it, and I could see all the main premise of Europa backed up by facts. I knew in that moment this was the way forward to waking everyone up, I immediately created a channel, and started working with everyone together to spread it as far as we possibly could. However, some information in Europa has been called out as bad information, unsourced or nonfactual by figures such as Keith Woods who have greatly benefited from the mass influx of people waking up from Europa The Last Battle helping improve his follower account on twitter and Nationalism as a whole across the world. That being said, we as a movement need to strive to be 100% correct on the information we push out.

Europa was created by Tobias as a one man army so we don’t fault him for his massive effort probably costing him 1000 hours or so to make the massive 12 hour Europa The Last Battle Documentary we revere so much. So with that being said, we give all credit where credit is due and we hope to help make Europa The Last Battle 100% correct so we can deliver it to the masses. That being said, this information is more correct than really anything we all have ever seen from the history channel regarding WW2’s accounts of “The Evil Nazi’s”. Credit is due where credit is due, and Tobias will remain a legend for eternity for waking up the people. Our goal is simply to keep its original vision and make it perfect. That being said here are the first wave of fact checks and we hope you all work with us to make them as good as we possibly can before we start working on Europa The Last Battle revised. We have a film maker and everyone we need to get started. All we need is the finished fact checks, peer review, and a strong will together.

Best Regards,

Episode 8 official fact check –

Revision 1 -

In this document I have given and pointed out 45 claims, some I have no addresses due to being addressed in Europa the last battle episode 8.

39 claims are factually correct with sources, this is 86.67% truth. The other 13.33% are things which aren't true or only partially true. 8.9% is false. 4.44% of the information is partially correct. - @Frankly_Adolf from @Nsandnews Channel on Telegram.

Claim 1. Timestamp 1:06

Revisionists do not dispute that Jews were persecuted, deprived of civil rights, deported, interned and forced to work at concentration camps or that Jews died in those camps and ghettos during the war. ✓

This is true as we can see from David Irving, David Christopher Cole also known as David Stein, the Leuchter and Rudolf report that they demonstrate that the gas chamber narrative was entirely fraudulent and built upon lies.

Claim 2. Timestamp 2:12

After the attack on Pearl Harbor over 100,000 Japanese people who lived on the Pacific coast were relocated to internment camps simply because they were Japanese as well as other Germans and Italians. ✓

Claim 3. Timestamp 3:00

Watch towers were placed around the camps with guns located on these watchtowers preventing any prisoners from escaping. ✓ the government incarcerated 120,000 citizens and legal residents during World War II without due process or other constitutional protections to which they were entitled. Executive Order 9066, signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt on February 19, 1942, set in motion the forced removal and imprisonment of all people of Japanese ancestry (citizens and non-citizens alike) living on or near the West Coast.

Claim 4: Timestamp 3:12

They were denied medicines whilst in the camps. ✕

Whilst the conditions in the hospitals and the camps were bad they were given medicines and immunizations.

The hastily planned and erected WCCA centers—crowded, unhealthy, unsanitary, and demoralizing, posed strong threats to the public health of the inmates. As a result, the primary activities of the medical staff centered on an inoculation program against typhoid fever, diphtheria, smallpox, and whooping cough. Medical staff immunized thousands of inductees thereby causing significant delays in preparations to open most infirmaries for general care. At Manzanar, during a three month period beginning March 22, 1942, the resident medical staff administered 28,923 typhoid inoculations and 11,475 smallpox immunizations.

Claim 5. Timestamp 4:36

They were not given reparations following their time in the internment camps. ✕

The Japanese American relocation program had significant consequences. Camp residents lost some $400 million in property during their incarceration. Congress provided $38 million in reparations in 1948 and forty years later paid an additional $20,000 to each surviving individual who had been detained in the camps.

British-Jewish Financiers invented concentration camps in Boer in 1899 . ~

Whilst this is partly correct Anglo-Jews did not invent concentration camps, The Spanish did a couple years prior in the Spanish-Cuban War (1896-1898).

Cecil Rhodes set up concentration camps in South Africa and advocated for their genocide.

The prisoners had been without food or water for days until the Allies arrived, partly because of Allied bombing. Just before and after liberation, about 500 prisoners a day were dying, mostly from typhus. There were no gas chambers at Bergen-Belsen.

Dear Mr. McClelland :

In reply to your letter of November 17, in which you asked us if a delegate of the International Committee of the Red Cross had succeeded in visiting the camp at Auschwitz, we are able to supply you with the following information :

It is a fact that one of our delegates was able to enter this camp. He approached the Commandant with a view to arranging a scheme of possible relief consignments for the civilian prisoners there. According to his impression, the camp was a type of "extensive concentration camp" where the detainees were compelled to do various kinds of work, including work outside the camp. Our delegate told us that he had not been able to discover any trace of installations for exterminating civilian prisoners. This fact corroborates a report which we had already received from other sources, i.e., that for several months past there had been no further exterminations at Auschwitz. At all events, this is not a camp containing exclusively Jews.

We are supplying you with this information personally and confidentially, because we obviously do not wish to publish the fact that this visit had been made. If it became known amongst the public, it might create the impression that the International Committee had means at their disposal of intervening in behalf of the detainees of this camp. Moreover, the Detaining Authorities might be tempted to assert that this visit by a delegate of the

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lampshades_made_from_human_skin

In wikipedia it says Karl-otto-koch's lampshade was confirmed to be jewish skin however there is no forensic evidence and even it says the skin is goat hide, not a human. As we know he got executed for crimes he committed because of murdering people in a camp.

Jean Edward Smith, in his biography Lucius D. Clay, an American Life, reported that the general had maintained that the leather lamp shades were really made out of goat skin. The book quotes a statement made by General Clay years later:

There was absolutely no evidence in the trial transcript, other than she was a rather loathsome creature, that would support the death sentence. I suppose I received more abuse for that than for anything else I did in Germany. Some reporters had called her the "Bitch of Buchenwald", and had written that she had lamp shades made of human skin in her house. And that was introduced in court, where it was absolutely proven that the lampshades were made out of goat skin.

Dr. ROBERT FAURISSON

2. The Diary of Anne Frank is a fraud. That was the conclusion of our studies and research. That is the title of the book I will publish.

3. In order to study the question posed and to find an answer to it, I have carried out the following investigations:

Chapter one: Internal criticism: the very text of the Diary (Dutch text) contains an inexplicable number of unlikely or inconceivable facts. (Paragraphs 4-12.)

Chapter two: A study of the premises in Amsterdam: on the one hand, the physical impossibilities and, on the other hand, the explanations made up by Anne Frank's father severely compromise him. (Paragraphs 13-17)

Chapter three: Interview of the principal witness: Mr. Otto Frank; as it turned out, that interview overwhelmed Anne Frank's father. (Paragraphs 18-47.)

Chapter four: Bibliographical examination: some curious silences and revolutions. (Paragraphs 48-55.)

Chapter five: A return to Amsterdam for a new investigation: the hearing of the witnesses turns out to be unfavorable to Mr. Frank; the probable truth. (Paragraphs 56-63.)

Chapter six: The "betrayal" and the person who arrested the Franks: why has Mr. Frank wished to assure them such anonymity? (Paragraphs 64-71.)

Bruno Baum admitted to the stories being false. ✓

The German-Jewish Communist Bruno Baum, in 1935 sentenced to ten years imprisonment for anti-government activity together with Erich Honecker, later president of Communist East Germany, and transferred to Auschwitz from Brandenburg prison in 1943 was, by his own admission, one of the most active fabricators of camp propaganda.

After the end of the war, Baum wrote his memoirs, 113 which appeared in three different editions (published in 1949, 1957, 1961).

The first edition, published in 1949, states as follows on page 34: "It is no exaggeration when I say that the majority of all Auschwitz propaganda, which was spread at that time all over the world, was written by ourselves in the camp."

One page later, Baum raises the ante:

"We carried out this propaganda in [for] the world public until our very last day of presence in Auschwitz."

Baum thus generously admits that the reports were resistance movement "propaganda".

In the next edition, published in 1957, however, he states:

"It is no exaggeration when I say that the greatest part of the publications on Auschwitz spread all over the world originated from ourselves [...] We informed the world in this manner until the very last day of our stay in Auschwitz." (p. 89)

Thus, "propaganda" became "publications," by means of which the world was "informed"! Baum was transferred from Auschwitz to Mauthausen, where he assiduously continued his propaganda activity in the local camp resistance movement.

Americans torture Germans to extort "confessions"

By FRED REDMAN

TODAY I am able to tell the full story, revealed in Washington, of the American war trials scandal. It is an ugly story of barbarous tortures inflicted in the name of Allied justice.

It is time that the British people knew all the facts. Little has appeared in our Press until today.

The charge is that American soldiers, building evidence against Germans accused of war crimes, have behaved with the same sadistic cruelty as the beasts who terrorised Europe when it was under Nazi domination.

HUNT FOR 5 SHIRT-SLEEVE SOLDIERS

FIVE soldiers in shirt-sleeves, held as absentees, escaped from the Central Recruiting Office, Great Scotland Yard last night.

They were being taken from their cells to an exercise yard when one of them noticed a door left open at the end of a tunnel. Pushing the escort aside, they reached the street and disappeared in Whitehall.

The five, all privates, are Arthur Hounslow, 21, Royal Berkshire Regt.; Robert McAlpine, 20, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders; Thomas McDermott, 27, Cameronians; Joseph Whitehair, 20, Royal Norfolk Regt.; and Sapper Hutchinson, 21, Royal En-

The truth has come out through the persistence of an American lawyer and the frank horror of an American judge who refuses to be muzzled.

Judge Edward Van Roden, member of a U.S. Army Commission of Inquiry, tells how burning matches were forced under the fingernails of a prisoner by American investigators to extort a confession. For months, he says, men were kept in solitary confinement on near-starvation rations.

And they were beaten up and savagely kicked till strong men were reduced to broken wrecks ready to mumble any admission demanded by their prosecutors.

The War Department have shown the judge's personal report only to General Lucius Clay, their military commander in Germany. Washington suspects the reason was that it was too shocking for public disclosure.

But Judge Van Roden is not so squeamish. The grim truth, he declares, must be told.

Commission sent to Germany to investigate was even more candid.

All but two of the Germans, in the 139 cases we investigated, had been kicked in the testicles beyond repair," he charged. "This was standard operating procedure with our American investigators.

They would put a black hood over the accused's head and then punch him in the face with brass knuckles."

U.S. Army prosecution teams had, he said, posed as priests to hear confessions and give absolution.

At mock trials men who refused to confess were confronted by a crucifix and burning candles. Those sham courts, attended by men in U.S. Army uniform, passed sham death sentences. Then the accused were told: "Sign this confession and we will get you acquitted."

Army witnesses explained that they had "a tough case to crack," and that "persuasive methods" were necessary.

Benedict Kautsky never saw a Gas Chamber despite being in them. ✓

Here is Franz Scheidl's account in Geschichte der Verfemung Deutschlands

The first edition of the report was published in 1945 in Switzerland. He [Kautsky] wrote about the gas chambers:

"I was [seven years] in the big German concentration camps. In accordance with the truth, I have to say that I never came across a facility such as a gassing facility in any of the camps."

This means that Kautsky has not seen any gassing facilities in any of the camps where he had been. Kautsky was in the concentration camp Auschwitz for more than four years. There cannot be a more perfect and convincing testimony on the non-existence of gassing facilities in Auschwitz.

Gas chambers in the Altreich - yes or no?

This question is even today not answered satisfactorily. "Altreich" means here Germany within the borders of 1937, and "gas chambers" means only those for killing people (the fact that in German concentration camps gas chambers were used for the delousing of textiles is denied by no one).

According to Pinter's letter to the editor (Text E) "there was no gas chamber at Dachau. ...

Nor was there a gas chamber in any of the concentration camps in Germany." Pinter had himself not personally investigated every concentration camp in the Altreich. On this important item we sought more precision. Years later, apparently on an inquiry of Robert Miller, Pinter answered more precisely (Text I) : "I had nothing to do with Mauthausen. However, since I took some months investigating Flossenbürg and all the outcamps connected therewith, while stationed at Dachau, I can talk about those."
